

Let's Read

How many words do children need to be able to read before they could be considered a reader?

Let's Read

How many words do children need to be able to read before they could be considered a reader?

Let's Read

How many words do children need to be able to read before they could be considered a reader?

Let's Read

How many words do children need to be able to read before they could be considered a reader?

Answer: One.

If a child can read one word she or he IS a reader.

- Confidence is the key to reading success.
- Read in an atmosphere of pleasure and enjoyment.
- Help beginners see themselves as successful readers BEFORE they are capable readers.

Can your child read:

- A traffic sign?
- A word in the grocery flyer?
- His or her own name?

Your child is a reader!

Answer: One.

If a child can read one word she or he IS a reader.

- Confidence is the key to reading success.
- Read in an atmosphere of pleasure and enjoyment.
- Help beginners see themselves as successful readers BEFORE they are capable readers.

Can your child read:

- A traffic sign?
- A word in the grocery flyer?
- His or her own name?

Your child is a reader!

Answer: One.

If a child can read one word she or he IS a reader.

- Confidence is the key to reading success.
- Read in an atmosphere of pleasure and enjoyment.
- Help beginners see themselves as successful readers BEFORE they are capable readers.

Can your child read:

- A traffic sign?
- A word in the grocery flyer?
- His or her own name?

Your child is a reader!

Answer: One.

If a child can read one word she or he IS a reader.

- Confidence is the key to reading success.
- Read in an atmosphere of pleasure and enjoyment.
- Help beginners see themselves as successful readers BEFORE they are capable readers.

Can your child read:

- A traffic sign?
- A word in the grocery flyer?
- His or her own name?

Your child is a reader!